DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is response to Applicant's amendment filed on June 17, 2003. The rejections are as stated below:

Withdrawn of Finality

2. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn. Specifically, the claim of priority is accepted.

Status of Claims

3. Of the original claims 1-23 and previously added claims 24-30, claims 1 and 24 have been amended. Accordingly, claims 1-30 are under prosecution in this application.

Summary of this Office Action

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-30 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. Therefore, claims 1-30 are rejected as being unpatentable over the art cited below, and Applicant's request for allowance is respectfully denied.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3624

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 24-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ferguson et al.

(United States Patent Number 5,991,736).

Claims 24-30: Ferguson et al. discloses a computerized method for implementing an expenditure tracking, reward, and investment program. Specifically, the method of establishing an account, making deposit, tracking and redeeming the deposit associated with a card with an independent financial institution where such tax-deferred investment account can be used as a retirement account is disclosed in at least col. 4, lines 52-59, col. 5, lines 41-49 and col. 6, lines 47-58.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Feidelson et al. (United States Patent Number 6,345,261 B1).

Claim 1: Ferguson et al. teach a method for implementing a patron betting, rating, and investment program, said method comprising the steps of establishing an investment account for the benefit of a patron and making deposits and withdrawn therein (col. 4, lines 52-59; col. 5, lines 41-49).

However, Ferguson et al. failed to explicitly specify an investment method and system use in connection with a casino. The examiner takes Official Notice that providing an investment account in connection with an entertainment service is old and well known in the art. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to include casino as one of participants of such invention because Fig. 4 has an entertainment category that listed various of entertainment services such as audio, book, music and an option key for more entertainment services. Casino service is categorized as an entertainment service. The use and advantages of the step of not listing all of the available services are well known.

Claims 2, 7, 8, 9 and 10: Ferguson et al. teach the method of claim 1 wherein said step of making a deposit comprises the step of depositing cash into said investment account (Fig. 2-4 and column 14, lines 23-25). However, Ferguson et al. failed to explicitly specify an investment method and system use in connection with a casino. The examiner takes Official Notice that providing an investment account in connection with an entertainment service is old and well known in the art. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to include casino as one of participants of such invention because Fig. 4 has an entertainment category that listed various of entertainment services such as audio, book, music and an option key for more entertainment services. Casino service is categorized as an entertainment service. The use and advantages of the step of not listing all of the available services are well known.

Claims 3, 11, 12 and 13: Ferguson et al. teach the method of claim 1 wherein said step of making a deposit comprises the steps of establishing a formula for calculating and issuing of awards (see at least fig. 1; col. 6, lines 47-60).

However, Ferguson et al. failed to explicitly specify having rating points to be awarded to a patron during game play. The examiner takes Official Notice that one would be able to award rating or loyalty points at any given time specified. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to include a feature to indicate the time period in which the rating or loyalty points are to be awarded because it takes certain amount of time to calculate and process the points. The use and advantages of this step are well known.

Claim 4: Ferguson et al. teach the method of claim 3 further comprising the step of issuing said patron an investment rating card that is associated with said investment account of said patron (col. 4, lines 56-57; col. 6, lines 48-49). However, Ferguson et al. failed to explicitly specify issuing a hard copy card. The examiner takes Official Notice that one would be able to print out a hard copy of the investment account identifier on paper in the form of a card from the invention as described in Ferguson. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to include the capability of printing because hard copies are desirable for the purposes for record keeping. The use and advantages of this step are well known.

Claims 5, 14, 15 and 16: Ferguson et al. teach the method of claim 1 wherein said step of making a deposit comprises the steps of establishing awards in several forms such as electronic funds (col. 6, lines 5-6).

However, Ferguson et al. failed to explicitly specify the use of betting chips. The examiner takes Official Notice that one would have the flexibility of choosing various medium such as paper documentations, cash, chips or even electronic currencies as the form of rebates for redeeming the loyalty points. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to include various forms of currencies because cash alone is just not convenient as shown by use of credit cards, debit cards and electronic monies. The use and advantages of this step are well known.

Claims 6, 17, 18 and 19: Ferguson et al. teach the method of claim 1 wherein said step of making a deposit comprises the steps of establishing a conventional rating account for the benefit of said patron, issuing awards based on calculations made and redeeming award thereof (see at least fig. 1; col. 6, lines 47-60).

However, Ferguson et al. failed to explicitly specify an investment method and system use in connection with a casino. The examiner takes Official Notice that providing an investment account in connection with an entertainment service is old and well known in the art. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to include casino as one of participants of such invention because Fig. 4 has an entertainment category that listed various of entertainment services such as audio, book, music and an option key for more entertainment services. Casino service is categorized as an entertainment service.

The use and advantages of the step of not listing all of the available services are well known.

Claims 20 and 22: Ferguson et al. teach the method of claim 1 wherein said investment account is operated and maintained by a sponsor for the sponsor's goods or services (abstract; col. 4, lines 39-45).

However, Ferguson et al. failed to explicitly specify casino as the merchant or as a sponsor who provides goods or services to the customer or patron. The examiner takes Official Notice that one would consider a casino as a merchant. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to include casino as one of the merchants as described of such invention because Fig. 4 has an entertainment category that listed various of entertainment services such as audio, book, music and an option key for more entertainment services. Casino service is categorized as an entertainment service. The use and advantages of the step of not listing all of the available services are well known.

Claims 21 and 23: Ferguson et al. teach the method of claim 1 wherein said investment account is operated and maintained by an independent financial institution (col. 5, lines 41-43).

However, Ferguson et al. failed to explicitly specify an investment method and system use in connection with a casino. The examiner takes Official Notice that providing an investment account in connection with an entertainment service is old and well known in the art. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to include casino as one of participants of such invention because Fig. 4 has an entertainment category that listed various of entertainment services such as audio, book, music and an option key for more entertainment services. Casino service is categorized as an entertainment service. The use and advantages of the step of not listing all of the available services are well known.
